SOVIET RUSSIA WILL ASSIST CHINA BUT WILL NOT FIGHT JAPAN

JAPANESE DETERMINED TO FIGHT ON

Statement By General Hata

Shanghai, March 11.

The Japanese army will be ready to co-operate with the new regime in Central China if its basic policies are friendship with Japan and war on the Kuomintang and the communist party.

The above was embodied in a statement made by General Hata, commander-in-chief of the Japanese forces in Central China in an interview with the Japanese press following a military review in the Civic Centre, yesterday.

"The troops participating in the review," General Hata said, "have exhibited so high a morale and fighting spirit that they could be sent to any point however remote—even Hankow."

General Hata declared that the Army was determined to go on no matter how long the current war may last.

Meanwhile he said the troops were preparing for future operations and maintaining order in the area under Japanese occupation as well as striving to rehabilitate the war-torn districts.

"In dealing with third Powers, we follow the honourable path of justice in accordance with the Government's foreign policy," General Hata said he would exercise caution in dealing with the problem of the International Settlement in view of the complex relationship between foreign interests within it. The China Incident, he went on, has reached the second stage therefore the Japanese forces must make full preparations for the coming protracted hostilities.—(Reuter).

FATHER OF THE REPUBLIC

13th Anniversary Of Death Of Dr. Sun Yat-sen

EARLY HISTORY RECALLED

Today is the thirteenth anniversary of the death of Dr. Sun Yat-sen, Kuomintang Party Leader, and the Chinese of the Party which he founded in China, and throughout the world will pay homage to a man who spent practically his whole life working for the success of the Revolution, which brought about the birth of the Republic.

The late Dr. Sun Yat-sen is styled by the Chinese, the "Father of the Republic."

To mark the occasion a public memorial meeting will be held at the King's Theatre today at 11 a.m.

QUEEN'S COLLEGE BOY

It is of particular interest to note that the late Dr. Sun was intimately connected with Hong Kong for it was here that he received part of his education as a medical student of the Hong Kong School of Medicine, graduating on July 16, 1892. Prior to this he was in the Central School, now known as Queen's College.

Dr. Sun Yat-sen was born in 1866 in Choy Hang Village of the Hwang Shan district, now named Chung Shan district in the Kwangtung Province.

When still a child, his uncle, Mr. Sun Mee, took him to Honolulu, and later he returned to Hong Kong.

AMBASSADOR'S REPORT TO GENERALISSIMO

UNAUTHORISED PROMISES BY SOVIET ENVOY ENDS IN RECALL

Hankow, March 11.

Soviet Russia will give every assistance possible to China in her struggle with Japan but under no circumstances will Soviet Russia resort to war against Japan.

This is the conclusion of Dr. Chiang Ting-fu, former Chinese Ambassador to Moscow, who has just returned to Hankow from the Soviet capital, and forms the major part of the Ambassador's report to Generalissimo Chiang Kai-shek, regarding Sino-Soviet relations.

Soviet Russia's refusal to fight Japan, according to Dr. Chiang, is based firstly, on the Soviet's isolation in international relations and secondly the Soviet's internal difficulties.

RENTS COMMISSION SEEKS EVIDENCE

Public Asked To Send Written Statements

RECOGNISING THE NECESSITY of completing its investigations as early as possible, the Rents Commission recently appointed by the Governor-in-Council to inquire into rent charges and present housing difficulties in the Colony invites tenants and landlords to submit in writing any facts which they may wish to bring to the notice of the Commission.

AN ADVERTISEMENT to this effect appears in another page of today's Daily Press.

SINCE THE BEGINNING of the Sino-Japanese hostilities, which have resulted in a phenomenal increase in the local population, there has been a growing tendency among landlords to increase their tenant's rents.

Answer To Public Outcry

Reasonable increases due to the shortage of housing accommodation might be expected, but many cases of exorbitant increases and arbitrary evictions have, however, resulted in a general public outcry. The abuse, as letters to the press have shown, has steadily grown in proportion with a corresponding aggravation of distress and suffering.

Matters were brought to a head when the evil was bitterly denounced at the annual general meeting of the influential Kowloon Residents' Association held on March 4, when expression was given to a general desire for government intervention in the matter.

The unanimous protest of public and press has led to the appointment of the Rents Commission, which consists of the following members: Mr. W. Schofield (Chairman), Mr. W.

J. Lockhart-Smith, and Mr. R. J. Minnett (Secretary).

It is hoped that all who have genuine grievances or who are in imminent distress will communicate with the Commission so that gathering of information may be completed as soon as possible and suitable and effective measures devised to alleviate the general hardship.

Communications may be sent to the Secretary, Rents Commission, care of the Secretariat for Chinese Affairs. It is emphasised that if so desired any statements which may be made will be treated as confidential.

After considering the statements submitted, the Commission will later require those who have sent them to give oral testimony at the Urban Council Chamber, Post Office Building.

For carriage of all first-class mail there will be no surcharge to and from Hong Kong, it is being considered, but this cannot be undertaken till the full Empire services from the United Kingdom to Singapore is operating as provided by the Empire Agreement of June 1927.—(Reuter).

Increased Revenue Last Year For Wharf Company

THREE LIGHT GODOWNS BUILT TO STORE DIVERTED CARGO

Payment of a final dividend of $8.50 was voted for at the general meeting of the Hong Kong and Kowloon Wharf and Godown Company, Ltd., held yesterday at the Company's offices.

The Company's accounts showed an increase in revenue from all sources, this being brought about to a large extent by the sudden influx of diverted cargo since the outbreak of the Sino-Japanese hostilities.

The Hon. Mr. J. J. Paterson, chairman of the board of directors, presided. Those present were the Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell, Hon. Mr. M. T. Johnson, Messrs. Frank Austin, A. H. Compton, J. H. Jensen, L. Kadoorie and T. B. Wilson, (directors), Mr. F. H. Crapnell (manager), and the following shareholders, Sir Henry Pollock, Messrs. D. F. Landale, D. Mackenzie, A. Mackenzie, G. B. S. Thomson, J. M. Alves, Lo Kai-wing, Kwok Hin-wang, C. A. L. Rickett, G. W. Sewell, N. V. A. Croucher and A. R. Fullerton, attorney for J. E. Joseph. The Chairman said:

The outstanding feature of the year's working is the increase in revenue from all sources. As mentioned in the Report, earnings for the first half of the year had shown a decided increase over 1936, and then during the latter months receipts were further increased from the large quantities of cargo consigned to other ports, which were forced on us.

No increases in rates have been made since trouble in the north started.

THREE NEW GODOWNS

With the sudden influx of diverted cargo it became imperative to build further accommodation in addition to the various leased godowns and spaces which had been acquired immediately. Accordingly, three godowns of light construction were built, at a cost of $11,600.00, to ease the situation as much as possible.

These buildings were erected in record time, for from date of commencement they were ready for occupation within 21 days. The total capacity of the three godowns is 22,000 tons.

We were fortunate to escape serious damage from the typhoon which passed over the Colony on the night of 1st September last. All launches and lighters were safely in shelter. No. 1 wharf was slightly damaged by a steamer drifting on to it. Otherwise our Kowloon property was little the worse.

The wharf at West Point, being in a more exposed position, lost most of the decking and a number of piles, whilst the roofs of four houses attached to the West Point Godowns were blown away. Part of the cost of repairs was recovered under insurance.

TONNAGE INCREASE

During the year 908,990 tons of cargo were landed from 1,255 steamers. This is an increase of 238,520 tons over the previous year, whilst there was a decrease of 86 in the number of vessels to discharge.

Turning to the accounts you will notice that $22,200.00 has been expended on lighters and there is a sum of $70,500.00 outstanding. This expenditure represents a contract for 12 new lighters now being built to add to our fleet.

The necessity for this addition has become increasingly apparent during the year; existing craft have been fully employed and we have from time to time been compelled to hire outside craft to cope with work afloat.

SPECIAL STAFF BONUS

A considerable amount of extra work was carried out by the staff during the abnormal conditions which obtained during the last five months of the year, and in view of this, the Directors decided to grant a special bonus which is shown in the Profit and Loss Account.

In view of the satisfactory result of last year's working your Directors decided to provide an additional $100,000.00 for depreciation of the concrete wharf which stood in the books at a high figure.

The balance available for appropriation is $1,164,411.65 which includes the amount of $208,623.14 brought forward from previous year. Your Directors recommend that this be dealt with as follows:—

Pay a dividend of $8.50 per share $765,000.00
Transfer to Repairs and Renewals A/c 150,000.00
Carry forward to next account 249,411.65

ACCOUNTS PASSED

The Chairman proposed and Sir Henry Pollock seconded that the report and statement of accounts be adopted.

The Hon. Sir Henry Pollock mentioned that he had addressed a letter to the Board on the question of splitting shares.

"I hope it will receive the consideration of the Directors as I feel that in a good, steady and progressing company such as this, there is no risk in letting in small investors and no risk of rigging the market," said Sir Henry.

"There is no reason" why the small investor should not be let in on a good steady business of this sort."

Sir Henry expressed the gratitude of shareholders to the staff and to the Secretary, Mr. Crapnell, who would soon be proceeding on retirement. His sentiments were echoed by the Chairman.

The report and accounts were then adopted. The appointment of Hon. Mr. S. H. Dodwell as a director, proposed by Mr. G. W. Sewell and seconded by Mr. G. B. S. Thomson, was confirmed.

Proposed by Mr. D. F. Landale and seconded by Mr. N. Croucher, Sir Robert Ho Tung, Mr. J. H. Jensen, Mr. L. Kadoorie and Mr. T. B. Wilson were re-elected directors of the Company.

Proposed by Mr. C. A. L. Rickett and seconded by Mr. J. M. Alves, Messrs. Linstead and Davis and Messrs. Percy Smith, Seth and Fleming were re-elected auditors for the ensuing year at a remuneration of $1,500 each.

"SIT DOWN" STRIKE IN KOWLOON

Book Company Employees

HUNGER CEASES ACTION

After holding out for a little over five and a half hours yesterday, the employees of the Chung Hwa Book Company, at Ma Tan Wai, finally gave up their "sit down" strike when at 2.40 p.m. the gates of the company was thrown open and the strikers ran out in all directions, fearing arrest by the police.

One of the reasons for the collapse of the strike was attributed to the fact that no food was available inside the compound and when Police refused to allow food to be passed to the strikers by their relatives, their hunger prompted them to change their minds.

Although the "sit down" strike failed, it was not after a list of ten demands had been presented to Mr. K. C. Chow, the manager

Kidnapper Gaoled

CRIME COMMITTED 13 YEARS AGO

The maximum sentence of one year's hard labour was passed on Lam Fung, 40-year widow, when she was convicted before Mr. H. R. Butters at Central Magistracy yesterday of a crime committed over 13 years ago, the kidnapping of a child.

The facts as related by Detective-Sergeant J. Allen were that the defendant was a frequent visitor at the residence of the child's mother. On December 24 she went to that address and when the complainant went out, she got the child out of the house on pretext of buying him some toys.

The child's elder sister went into the street with them but defendant sent her back, saying she had left her handkerchief there and asked her to get it for her. When the girl returned, defendant had disappeared.

Defendant was arrested in Cross Street last month and told the police that the child was dead. If he were still living he would now be 18 years old.

COLLISION IN HARBOUR

Japanese Ship And H.M.S. Duchess In Accident

The Nippon Yusen Kaisha liner Haruna Maru, while steaming slowly through the harbour at 7.15 a.m. yesterday, collided with H.M.S. Duchess, which was moored at Buoy No. 8 off the Naval Yard, according to official information received from the Naval Authorities yesterday.

The impact was not heavy, and though the destroyer was caught on her starboard bow, the damage to her was reported to be very slight and only superficial.

Enquiries from the Anti-Piracy Officer, Lt.-Comdr. R. R. Helbert, R.N., elicited the information that the Haruna Maru was proceeding slowly westward just before the collision. She swung between naval buoys 3 and 4, in mid-harbour, dropped her anchor and turned on it. Then weighing anchor, she apparently came down-tide and struck the Duchess.

Third defendant was convicted on the first charge.

First and second defendants received sentences totalling nine months imprisonment each, and were further recommended for banishment at the expiration of their sentences.

Third defendant was fined $100, in default three months imprisonment.

CATHOLIC NEWS AND NOTES

ST. PATRICK'S DAY

Thursday next is St. Patrick's Day, one of the saint's days that requires no explanation. All enemies of Irish people declare a truce with them for that day—a fact which they always gratefully acknowledge.

The day is observed a festival by Irish people in whatever part of the world they are, but in Ireland itself its celebration is mainly religious in character.

It has often been remarked as surprising that the national saint was not commemorated on the coins or stamps of Ireland, but that omission has now been remedied, for the figure of the saint appears on the stamps of high denomination that have been issued within the past year.

The design is a very happy one, for it depicts St. Patrick lighting the druidical fire which was to be lit about paschal time, and thereby it not merely commemorates the saint but also the heroic past which preceded his coming.

Fire appears as a motif in many ancient Irish designs, the other most common one being the dragon, which is as different as could be from the Chinese dragon and is far more like the snakes which tradition says St. Patrick banished from Ireland.

OTHER PATRICKS

Other saints of the name of Patrick stand little chance of recognition in comparison with one so widely known. One Welsh saint in fact seems to have suffered particularly in this respect, for his identity was almost merged into that of the Irish Apostle and his feast was even transferred to St. Patrick's Day.

Yet he was one who well deserved recognition on his own account, for he was a prominent figure in the early history of Celtic monasticism. His memory was revived in a strange way a few years ago.

People had long been accustomed to speak of the places from which one crossed the Irish Sea as Kingstown and Holyhead, but as soon as the Irish Free State was set up the former name was changed to the old name, Dun Laoghaire. Within a short time the Welsh terminus also reverted to its old name, Caerdydd, and it was when the memories connected with this restored name began to be recalled that the story of Padrig ab Alfydd got new mention.

He lived in the time of, and was associated with the works of, the great bishop St. Eborac, the "Willard of the Welsh Church," who transferred his see from Caerdydd to Bangor Fawr.

Other Patricks are better known under the Latin form of Patricius and one whose name changed to Patrizio has a town called after him near Nevers, in France.

C.T.S. OR O.B.E.

O.B.E. are well known initials all over the British Empire, but in France they have a different meaning. They stand for Oeuvre de la Brochure à l'Eglise, which may be freely translated as the work of distributing Catholic pamphlets. The work is similar to that carried on in England and elsewhere by the Catholic Truth Society—C.T.S. for short.

The pamphlets are somewhat the same in both cases, brief explanations on some single points about which information is often sought. The English pamphlets, of which over a million are sold every year, enjoy a high reputation for accuracy and conciseness.

In the Catholic pavilion of the Paris Exhibition last year, ladies connected with the O.B.E. took charge of a pamphlet rack of books from the C.T.S., while another group from the same French Society took charge of a rack for their own books. There was interesting rivalry between the two, but naturally the French rack proved more successful, since most of the visitors to the Exhibition were French.

On many occasions, however, a party of English-speaking Catholic visitors arrived and bought up the whole English collection. Over 19,500 French pamphlets were sold there during the last three months in which the Exhibition was open.

It is not often that a popular actor and actress, husband and wife, celebrate the 50th anniversary of their appearance on the stage; so it is not surprising that

A STAGE JUBILEE

It is being celebrated in honour of the jubilee of two of the best known personalities on the English stage, Sir Seymour and Lady Hicks. They both began their stage careers at sixteen, and that was fifty years ago.

Lady Hicks, better known as Ellaline Terriss, is a convert to the Catholic Faith, but her husband is a Catholic since birth. His father was an officer in a Highland Regiment and he was educated at Priory Park College, Bath.

Husband and wife have acted together countless times, and few theatrical partnerships have been more happy both for themselves and for their audiences. Both have been active also in supporting many charitable enterprises.

Sir Seymour received the French decoration of the Legion of Honour a few years before he was knighted.

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE LESSON SERMON

SUBJECT: SUBSTANCE

The subject of the Lesson Sermon in all Christian Science Churches tomorrow, March 13 will be "Substance."

The Golden Text will be "My God shall supply all your need according to his riches in glory by Christ Jesus." (Phil. 4:19).

Among others the following citations will be read from the Bible "Now faith is the substance of things hoped for, the evidence of things not seen. For by it the elders obtained a good report. Through faith we understand that the worlds were framed by the word of God so that things which are seen were not made of things which do appear." (Heb. 11:1-3).

The following citations will also be read from the Christian Science Textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy "Substance is that which is eternal and incapable of discord and decay. Truth, Life and Love are substance as the Scriptures use this word in Hebrews: 'The substance of things hoped for the evidence of things not seen.' Spirit, the synonym of Mind, Soul or God, is the only real substance. In Christian Science, substance is understood to be Spirit, whilst the opponents of Christian Science believe substance to be matter. They think of matter as something and almost the only thing and of the things which pertain to Spirit as next to nothing or as very far removed from daily experience. Christian Science takes exactly the opposite view. Spirit is the only substance and consciousness recognised by divine Science." (Pages 468; 349; 278).

VIENNA READY FOR PLEBISCITE

GERMAN PROTEST

Vienna, March 11. A protest was lodged last night by the German Legation with Federal Chancellor Schuschnigg against the order of the Austrian Government imposing stricter censorship during the plebiscite, which lasts from today till Thursday, on all German newspapers offered for sale in Austria. (Transocean).

GERMAN PRESS COMMENT

"No Question Of Free Voting"

Berlin, March 11. After maintaining a strict silence on Dr. Schuschnigg's speech and the announcement of a plebiscite in Austria, the German press has now published short but sharp comments on the action taken.

The papers unanimously denounce the step, which, it is pointed out, was agreed upon in the absence of the National Socialist ministers and predict that it will have political repercussions.

"There can be no question of free voting", declares the Berliner Borsen Zeitung. Lack of election lists and control of any kind leaves the door wide open to political chicanery of a definite type. One wonders what the outcome of this scarcely comprehensible announcement will be.

The papers emphasise that it is utterly impossible to organise and carry out a fair plebiscite in these days.

The Deutsche Allgemeine Zeitung, stating that according to all rules of voting no significance can be attached to the so-called "plebiscite", announced that even the best organised countries require a minimum of several weeks for preparing for such an event. (Transocean).

FURTWANGLER WILL CONDUCT THE 9TH

Berlin, March 11. Wilhelm Furtwangler, the celebrated orchestral conductor, has declined an invitation to conduct throughout at the Salzburg festival because of heavy engagements elsewhere.

As last year, however, Furtwangler will conduct Beethoven's Ninth Symphony at Salzburg. (Transocean).

Patriotic Front Launches Big Propaganda Drive

Vienna, March 11. Excitement continued yesterday at a high pitch throughout Austria and the streets of the city were so crowded that omnibuses and trams had to avoid main thoroughfares. The streets and squares were deluged with pamphlets of the Patriotic Front challenging the population to vote for Dr. Schuschnigg.

The police have taken extensive measures to preserve order and to prevent crowds of National Socialists and Patriotic Front demonstrators from coming to blows.

Meetings have been announced in practically all large factories and business houses, and it is announced that the propaganda campaign of the Patriotic Front is to be progressively increased during the next two days.

Military bands are to be used, loud-speakers are to be strung up throughout the city and houses are to be decorated with flags and patriotic emblems in order to increase the effect.

SCHACHT REMAINS IN OFFICE

Berlin, March 11. Dr. Hjalmar Schacht, whose term of office as President of the Reichsbank expires on March 16, was reappointed yesterday by Chancellor Adolf Hitler for a further period of four years. (Transocean).

RICHARD WHITNEY INDICTED

New York, March 10. Mr. Richard Whitney, senior partner of the stockbroking firm of Whitney and Co., which went into voluntary bankruptcy this week, has been indicted by the New York Grand Jury on a charge of grand larceny in the first degree, based on the alleged misappropriation of between $105,000 and $110,000 from a Trust Account. (Reuter).

Japanese Political Parties Dead Set Against Cabinet DEMAND THOROUGH RECASTING OF MOBILISATION BILL

Tokyo, March 11. Concerning the controversy between Japanese political parties and the Government on the question of the constitutionality of the National Mobilisation Bill, now being discussed by Parliament, existing differences of opinion could not be bridged even at the secret session between the Government and the parties held yesterday.

The opposition of the parties is now directed with unmistakable clearness against the leaders of the Japanese Army, who are accused of designing to use the Mobilisation law to arrogate to themselves dictatorial powers.

Even the personal intervention of the Prime Minister, Prince Konoye, who expressly assured the parties that plenary powers to be bestowed by the Mobilisation law would be used strictly in accordance with the letter of the Constitution and that "all terrorist elements who wanted to attain their goal by use of force, would be suppressed and that both the Fascists and Front Populaire were irreconcilable with Japanese principles," was unable to break the opposition.

The parties, which continued to insist at the secret session on thorough recasting of the Bill, have threatened that should their demand be refused they would exercise in Parliament the sharpest opposition. (Transocean).

BUDGET READY NEXT MONTH

London, March 10. The Prime Minister announced in the House of Commons today that the Budget would be introduced in Parliament on April 24. (Reuter).

NEWS AGENCIES IGNORE SHAI CENSORSHIP

Japanese Might Use Compulsion

Shanghai, March 11. After consultation with diplomatic and consular authorities in which it was pointed out that the Chinese censors, when they were in control, never claimed the right to scrutinise copy before its issue from the foreign news agencies, it was decided to ignore the Japanese censors' demand, and not even to acknowledge it.

Later a Japanese Embassy spokesman announced that it was not necessary for foreign news agencies to adhere to the demand of the censors, at least insofar as it concerned agencies belonging to states with extraterritorial rights in Shanghai, that is Reuter, United Press and Havas.

As regards agencies whose states had not extraterritorial rights, that is Transocean and Tass, the question was one which would have to be referred to and worked

ANGLO-GERMAN RAPPORT

Foreign Ministers Have Lengthy Discussion

London, March 10. Baron Joachim von Ribbentrop, German Foreign Minister, visited the Foreign Secretary, Lord Halifax, today.

The conversations lasted nearly two and a half hours, which were longer than expected.

Baron Ribbentrop was accompanied by the German Charge D'Affaires.

It is believed that Lord Halifax outlined the attitude of the British Government towards problems in Central Europe, particularly in Austria and Czechoslovakia.

COLONIAL CLAIM The main purpose of the talks was to decide the most opportune moment to follow up earlier contacts between Lord Halifax, Mr. Neville Henderson and Herr Hitler.

It is believed that the British Government is no less anxious for a settlement with Germany than with Italy.

The German view is, however, that the question of colonies is the outstanding one between the two countries.

Britain maintains that this subject is one in which other countries are concerned, and any discussion of the German colonial claim must be linked with the wider question of European peace. (Reuter).

DEATH PENALTY FOR ARABS

Involved In Attack On British Post

Jerusalem, March 10.

Two Arabs were sentenced to death today by the military court on a charge of possession of arms. Arrested in a police and military expedition, they were alleged to have participated in an attack on a British outpost recently when two British soldiers were killed. (Reuter).

SCHUSCHNIGG WIN EXPECTED

Vienna, March 10.

Both the Austrian Nazis and the Fatherland Front supporters are convinced that the plebiscite on Sunday will result in a decisive majority for Dr. Kurt von Schuschnigg, the Chancellor, even if the Nazis voted "No" to the question whether they back the government independence policy.

The Nazi provincial centres have telegraphed President Miklas and Herr Seyss-Inquart protesting that the plebiscite is unconstitutional.

Herr Seyss-Inquart and Dr. von Schuschnigg were engaged in negotiations today which were stated to be partly political and partly economic. It is believed that Herr Seyss-Inquart's hand in this connection has been greatly strengthened by the arrival from Berlin of Herr Keppler, Secretary of State and Herr Hitler's economic adviser, who is believed to have brought a message from Herr Hitler.

NAZI DEMANDS

It is suggested that the Nazis are demanding other Government positions, and considerable pressure is being brought to bear on this.

Meanwhile, instructions have been issued to the Nazis to abstain from voting on Sunday, with the rider: "Unless a contrary order is given on Saturday evening."

It is generally believed that the demands made by Herr Seyss-Inquart to Dr. von Schuschnigg included, firstly, the postponement of the plebiscite to give time for a Nazi propaganda campaign; secondly two more Cabinet posts to be given to the Nazis.

Herr Keppler is understood to have pressed for acceptance of Germany's scheme for economic co-operation with Austria, involving an extensive plan of barter of Austrian agricultural products for German armaments and a substantial diversion of Austrian raw materials to Germany.

The Austrians have hitherto resisted this demand. (Reuter).

SERIOUS CLASH IN GRAZ

Nazis March Through City Denouncing Schuschnigg

Graz, March 11. A serious clash between members of the Fatherland Front and National Socialists occurred here last night when 10 persons were injured, some seriously.

About 7 p.m. crowds of National Socialists which had assembled in the central part of the city soon grew to such proportions that all traffic was interrupted.

A counter-demonstration of the Fatherland Front was planned, but except for an isolate instance no violence occurred.

Leaflets denouncing Dr. Schuschnigg for breaking the Berchtesgaden agreement were distributed by the National Socialists, who marched through the streets carrying Swastika flags and shouting "Down with Schuschnigg!" and "Down with the Plebiscite!" (Transocean).

HERBERT HOOVER FOR WARSAW

Ex-President Herbert Hoover of America, who has been staying in Berlin since last Monday, left here for Warsaw yesterday. (Transocean).

LILY PONS BACK AGAIN

"Hitting A New High" Opens Tomorrow

The latest Lily Pons musical film, "Hitting A New High," which opens at the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres to-morrow, ranks as the most colourful and amusing of the diva's three films.

The story is a delightful satire on the politics of a great opera company. A feud between the company's wealthy patron, played by Edward Everett Horton, and its impresario, played by Eduardo Cinnelli, is the basis on which most of the action turns.

Miss Pons, a night club entertainer who is ambitious to crash the gates of grand opera, is caught between the two in the battle.
Neatly counter-balancing this theme, is a romantic plot involving John Howard and the singer. Howard, in addition to being the diva's fiance, is also her employer, a band leader with whose orchestra she sings.

The picture was produced for R.K.O.-Radio by Jesse L. Lasky, pioneer film magnate, and directed by Raoul Walsh.

"IT'S ALL YOURS"

Francis Lederer's Gay Comedy

With Madeleine Carroll, Francis Lederer and Mischa Auer heading a stellar cast and with a scintillating story competently directed by Elliott Nugent, Columbia has clicked again with a ripping romantic comedy entitled "It's All Yours."

The picture which opened today at the Majestic Theatre before an audience that alternately roared with laughter or held their breaths in suspense, is sparkling entertainment.

The story concerns shy young Jimmy Barnes (Francis Lederer) who comes to America from Europe to join the law firm of his uncle. Jimmy is prodded into spending a few months having a good time, and the result is that after a few years young Barnes is the scandal of San Francisco. To bring him back to earth the elder Barnes enlists the aid of his mouse-like secretary, Linda Gray (Madeleine Carroll).

"ELEPHANT BOY"

A Memorable Picture

A new and remarkable boy star is introduced in "Elephant Boy," which Alexander Korda is presenting at the Majestic Theatre this week.

He is Sabu, a 13-year-old Indian lad who was discovered in India by Robert Flaherty, co-director of the film, working in the Maharajah's elephant stables. This naive unaffected child is one of the most delightful personalities ever brought to the screen. Women will love him—his smile alone will take care of that.

"Elephant Boy" is rare and restful entertainment, right off the beaten track. The story, based on "Toomal of the Elephants," one

DISNEY'S SNOW WHITE AND THE SEVEN DWARFS

Unquestionably the most important film deal of the past few years in Hong Kong was closed this week when Mr. C. S. Rossetti, on behalf of the General Amusement, Ltd., operating the Queen's and Alhambra Theatres, signed a contract with RKO Radio Pictures Inc. for local release of Walt Disney's full-length colour feature, "Snow White and the Seven Dwarfs."

The local release date, according to Mr. Rossetti, has not yet been determined, but the film is expected to be shown sometime in April or May.

CURRENT SENSATION

"Snow White" is currently the sensation of the amusement world. It has broken all records in America, and in the 6,000-seat Radio Music Hall in New York, it ran for five consecutive weeks grossing the amazing sum of $6560,000.00—a record for any picture.

It is also smashing records in other cities where it has so far been booked. In Los Angeles, "Snow White" is in its seventh week and will probably continue for another four.

On the opening day in Los Angeles the theatre was booked out at $1 a seat.
Never before has there been such a tremendous demand for seats for any film and RKO executives are firmly convinced that this Walt Disney feature will outgross any movie ever made.

"FORGERY" OF CHAPLIN PICTURES

The British Film Institute, which is cataloguing the early Charlie Chaplin films, has experienced difficulty in identifying many of them.

A report by the Institute referred to "forging." The meaning intended by the word has now been explained by an official of the Institute.
"Forging" is really the wrong term," he said. "We had in mind the 'duping' of Chaplin shorts in the days when the rights were often bought by one showman, who proceeded to 'dupe' a number of copies.

"Many of these were issued under different titles to deceive the public into thinking that an old film was a new one. So far as we can discover, Chaplin made 35 films in 1914, though others claim that the total was only 22. Yet we have a list of just under 100 Chaplin titles for that year."

EVER SINCE EVE

Two Popular Stars

Two stars of immense popularity, and of well deserved top rank among comedy players, are at the Queen's Theatre today, in "Ever Since Eve," the Cosmopolitan production.

They are Marion Davies, the lovely blonde comedienne, and Robert Montgomery, the debonair youth who has been leading man in so many gay movies.

Miss Davies and Montgomery are co-starred in what is described as the liveliest, fastest-moving farce either has played in for a long time.

Miss Davies plays the part of a stenographer who has been so harassed by employers because of her golden-haired beauty that she disguises herself with a dark wig and glasses and goes looking for another job.

Montgomery is a novelist who is crazy about blondes, but is forced to accept this seeming brunette forced upon him by his hard-boiled woman publisher, who wants him to keep his mind on his work.
The picture was directed by Lloyd Bacon.

Through an unfortunate oversight, the names of Sir Ely Kadoorie and Co. and The Steam Laundry Co. were omitted from the list of firms who so generously contributed to the bridge and mah jong drive in aid of the Hong Kong Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals held in the Peninsula Hotel on January 17.

The annual reunion of the Bibliotheque Francaise will be held on Tuesday, March 29 at 5 p.m. at the French Consulate, 4th floor Alexandra Building.

MAKING MEN FIT TO SOLDIER

Success Of New Depot

Through the establishment of the Recruits Physical Development Depot, the Army is gaining strength at the rate of a battalion a year, states the Times. The depot (under Major N. P. Procter) is now settled in Canterbury, where 230 recruits are enjoying a thoroughly healthy life.

The majority of the recruits are under weight when they arrive at the depot, a falling which is more easily rectified than flat feet or weak hearts, though some remarkable results with the latter have been attained also, aided by the individuals' will-power. The mental effort required in some cases has had a remarkable sequel, for already many commanding officers have written to say that men who have conquered physical disability with the help of the depot, have received early promotion.

Out of a total of 788 recruits who have been to the depot, 480 have passed into the Army as fit men, and most of the 230 at present at the depot will do the same. Every indication of this was to be seen during a visit to the depot recently. The men were working in classified squads, and it was pointed out that the tall ones had mostly come in as "heart" cases, due to overgrowth; and that the small ones were usually under weight, due to meagre nourishment. The former spend their first week or two in short country rambles and light work in the gymnasium; the latter, most of whom are fit constitutionally, are fed as growing lads ought to be fed.

SIX MEALS A DAY

Every one at the depot gets six meals a day, beginning with "gunfire" of tea, two biscuits, and 10z. of barley sugar, and finishing with a supper of fish and chips or cottage pie. Breakfast consists of porridge and milk, liver and bacon or egg, and bread and marmalade; dinner of such dishes as Lancashire hot pot or roast beef, with plenty of vegetables, followed by treacle roll or prune tart and custard; and tea, bread, butter, and jam. The sixth meal is during the break in the morning's work, when the lads are given a banana, or soup, or cocoa.

One lad who joined weighing 96lb. passed out weighing 112lb. with his chest expansion increased in proportion; and men with flat feet, which are mostly caused by improperly distributed weight, are often made normal through massage and carefully graded exercises, while their constitutions are improved by fresh air and plenty of good food.

The depot occupies premises which were once known as the Old Hospital. There is a good gymnasium, and it is there that the recruits spend most of their time, under the supervision of 15 highly qualified instructors. But other forms of training are not neglected. Every man is encouraged to obtain his third-class certificate of education; there are periods devoted to religious instruction; and the elements of drill are not overlooked.

QUICK RESULTS

The course is nominally one of 16 weeks, but some of the men are passed as fit in four weeks and others in 12; and the average time since May last year, when the experiment began, has been nine weeks. When a man has been passed by the specialist attached to the depot he leaves for his regiment and assumes his place as a recruit in the normal manner. Reports show that at first, perhaps for three weeks or a month, these lads lose a little weight, but they soon regain it and become sturdy soldiers.

That the War Office is pleased with the experiment is proved by the fact that another depot, to be run on exactly the same lines, is to be opened at Doncaster in April next. Here the work will proceed under the supervision of the Northern Command, and recruits from the North will be assisted. That they should be near their homes is an advantage, for week-end leave is granted freely, and parents are sometimes worried about their off-spring until they see the improvement that results from the special training.

General Liu Chen-hua, former Chairman of the Anhwei Provincial Government, who was taken seriously ill last year and has since been receiving treatment in Honan, arrived in Sian on March 1 to continue his rest cure, states a dispatch to the "Hwa Mei Pao."

Prudence Interviews More Empress Visitors

TITLED CRICKETER ALSO KEEN ON TENNIS AND GOLF

Passengers Talk Of Their Varied Travel Experiences

THOUGH HE FRANKLY ADMITS that he is bored to tears and sick to death of being interviewed, yet it is a fact that Lord Tennyson is actually a "most interviewable" person from the reporter's point of view.

I happened to just catch him yesterday "on the wing" (as it were) and was rather afraid that he might freeze me... but on the contrary he was very kind, and not at all alarming—for it happens that he has a most delightful speaking-voice (low, but very crisp and clear) and a charming and spontaneous manner which would set any shy reporter at ease!

Add to this, keen blue eyes, which light up when he is interested; a rather severe expression, which breaks into the most delightful smile in the world; and a brain all keyed up, and ready to make quick decisions.

And now I come to think of it... these are undoubtedly just the attributes which one might expect of a famous cricketer.

But Lord Tennyson is also very keen on both golf and tennis.

He told me that there are two excellent courts on board, and that he has been playing tennis every day, and also that he was very much struck by the attractions of Fanning, when he went round a few days ago.

Asked what he thought about cricket, as played by all our youngsters in the Public Schools at home in England, he replied that "the training given is very good indeed"—and that cricket at all the big Public Schools is "exceptionally well run."

STARTED AT FOUR

ASKED FURTHER if he thought that driving the game into boys from their very earliest days at their prep schools might tend to make them stale, or even cause them to lose interest later on, he replied "Most certainly not."

He thinks that they cannot possibly start too young, and told me that he was given a cricket bat, and made his first attempt at the game when he was four years old.

And that answer speaks for itself, for Lord Tennyson has long been recognised as England's finest amateur cricketer.

TOURING ENGINEER

MR. H. F. WILSON spoke most enthusiastically of his enjoyment of the cruise. He is the Department Superintendent of the Chicago Crane Co., which is one of the biggest concerns in the world, and supplies valves and fittings, etc., etc., to all parts of the globe.

He told me that one of the most interesting large-scale

Jobs undertaken recently by his firm was the wonderful pipe-line which runs across the Syrian Desert, and brings oil from the famous oilfields at Kirkuk to a point just west of the Euphrates. Here it then branches into two lines, one feeding the city of Tripoli, and the other going to Haifa.

Keen on all things pertaining to engineering matters, he has seen much to interest him throughout the voyage, and is looking forward to going up to Shing Mun to see Hong Kong's big achievement, the Shing Mun dam and reservoir.

A GORGEOUS JOKE

AS I KNOW Chicago only through the medium of the films, I naturally asked him if he had ever seen any of these "gangsters" or been "taken for a ride" and he then told me of the loveliest joke against himself.

It happened in Colombo, when the night editor of the Times slipped up badly over printing the passenger list for the morning paper, and, when, instead of featuring as Mr. Wilson of the Crane Company of Chicago, he appeared resplendent under the title of Mr. H. F. Wilson: Head of the CRIME COLONY of Chicago.

This tickled Mr. Wilson's sense of humour so much that he has kept the cutting to frame when he gets home again.

Introductions from the New York Branch have put him in touch with Mr. Kwok Ping Un of Kowloon Tong, who used to be connected with a big New York banking firm, and it has been most interesting for Mr. Wilson to have this link between America and our own Colony.

On His Ninth Globe Trot

THIS IS THE NINTH TRIP on the Empress of Britain made by Mr. J. R. Clancy a retired official of the Canadian Pacific Railways. And he dates these travels from the second trip made by this wonderful ship, in the days when Captain Latta was in command.

Mr. Clancy loves voyages and is a very good sailor, but admitted that the Empress of Britain is not actually a searching test of that, since she is so steady that you can hardly tell you are at sea.

He specially enjoys going through the Panama Canal, and told me about the city of Panama and the strange contrast between the old town (so small and simple) and the magnificent modern town which has sprung up since the canal was opened.

Mr. Clancy also told me that when he gets back to New York he will have made a journey of 34,494 miles, but that the time goes so quickly on board that the days just melt away.

Organised games of every kind are arranged daily, and besides the strenuous ones, for the energetic souls, there are always shuffle board, bridge, and entertainments to amuse the others.

SHIP'S CONCERT

MANY PEOPLE told me that they had a splendid concert on the Promenade Deck Aft on Sunday, March 6, given by the ship's orchestra, and that everybody enjoyed the charming songs given by Miss Hilda Allured, who has a lovely soprano voice and sang that difficult but enchanting song.

"The Lass With The Delicate Air" (by Arne) and Cyril Scott's dainty "Blackbird Song."

Mr. Frederick English also scored a big success with his contribution "I Love Life" (by Mana-Zucca), and the Star Spangled Banner at the end made a thrilling climax.

CHARMING NIECE

MRS. PROCTOR FOUGHT is travelling with a very charming young niece, Miss Marjorie Sharp, who is in her last year at the University of Missouri, and is very much interested in social service.

She would be quite willing to take the risk of going nearer to the war-zone, and is very much disappointed that the usual visit to Canton is not recommended. However, she has found plenty of interest in Hong Kong.

Her aunt, Mrs. Proctor Fought, said that she enjoyed most of all the wonderful journey by train across the plains of India to Darjeeling to see Mount Everest at sunrise. They were particularly lucky in having a clear sky and a marvellous view of the lofty snow-clad peak.

She said that she then realised the correctness of the truism, that "Mount Everest is the most beautiful God-made thing in the world," and that the Taj Mahal is the most beautiful Man-made thing in the world.

In spite of the rain and for she says that she admires and likes Hong Kong, thinks the shops are excellent, and tho' she has heard Hong Kong Har-

Lord Tennyson photographed aboard the Empress of Britain.

An elaborate scheme of future activities was decided upon, and Mr. Tam Sik-poon was appointed Chairman of the Sub-Committee of Sports and Socials, to undertake the task of carrying out the recreation and entertainment programme for the current year.

Mr. Martin Tso has been employed since February 1 to collect subscriptions, both for membership and for war relief purposes, but all past students may join the Association or forward subscriptions by direct communication with the Hon. DEPARTURES hour by night compared with that at Madela, she thinks that "ours" wins easily, hands down. Not only is it much bigger, but it is more brilliant and more "alive."

The Philippine Clipper will leave for San Francisco, via Manila, this morning with the following passengers: L. Coote, Catherine Coote, Dr. H. Moncardo, Diana Toy, Gui Sul Keng, H. D. Bruce, R. Monserrat, John F. Dulles, Janet, A. Dulles, Carl H. Beal, E. O. McDonnell, Helen McDonnell and C. Beal.

TRAVEL FOR PLEASURE

I WAS LUCKY in getting an introduction to Mrs. Helen Palmer, who is travelling for pleasure, and knows Europe very well indeed, having lived for eight years in Wiesbaden, that charming little township on the Rhine, famed for its gardens and its Opera.

She says that it still keeps all its former attractions and that those delightful afternoon concerts, and the weekly Opera nights go on as of yore.

She also told me that her most pleasant memory will always be that of the sound of young people singing below her windows. The young folk there make a practise of regular week-end hiking, and set off in happy parties singing as they go.

There is no space to tell of all the charming people I have met on board the Empress of Britain, but I shall often think of them, and I wish them all "bon voyage" and feel inclined to say, with the famous Scottish Ballad "Will ye no come back again!"

K.R.A. PURSUES RENTS ISSUE

Emergency Meeting Called

Arising from the views expressed by members at the annual general meeting held last week, the subject of increased rents was discussed at length at a meeting of the General Committee of the Kowloon Residents' Association held in St. Andrew's Church Hall on Tuesday.

It was decided to insert a questionnaire in the daily newspapers in order to obtain the facts upon which to approach the Government, and in order to discuss the matter further an emergency meeting of the Committee was called for Tuesday, March 22.

Various other matters were brought up for discussion, including a letter signed by a number of Kowloon Tong residents concerning a rumour that the Military Authorities proposed to erect mule stables on the reclaimed land east of the garden city.

The residents of Kowloon Tong appealed to the Association to lodge a protest with the Government against such a policy.

APPOINTMENTS

Various sub-committee were appointed:—

JAPAN'S GREATEST BLUNDER

As the Editor of "Tien Hsia" so correctly puts it, Japan's greatest blunder in the present undeclared war was her under-estimation of the human factor in her relations and dealings with other people.

Had Tokyo, known in August, 1937, what she knows today, it is doubtful whether the Sino-Japanese war would ever have occurred, and even if it did, it is certain that Japan's course of action would have been very different. That is obvious from present happenings.

The killing, insulting and humiliation of foreigners, the bombing of foreign ships, the destruction of foreign missions, hospitals and schools—all these things and many others including stupid, offensive and bombastic effusions by Japanese soldiers, statesmen and government spokesmen made it quite unnecessary for China to send propaganda missions abroad. Japan, unknowingly, helped the

Small-Pox Not Reported

MAN IN PREMISES FOR ELEVEN DAYS

A charge of failing to report a case of small-pox, preferred against Ho Hing-tong, was dismissed by Mr. R. Edwards at Central Magistracy yesterday.

Sanitary Inspector Watson prosecuted and defendant was represented by Mr. Alfred S. K. Lau. Sanitary Inspector Watson said he visited No. 232 Queen's Road West on February 18 and saw a man named Tam Wah, and from his actions he suspected the man was suffering from small-pox.

He called Dr. J. M. Gray, who verified this, and the man was sent to the Kennedy Town Hospital.

The prosecution further alleged that the sick man had been on the premises for 11 days.

Evidence was called by the defence, however, that Tam had only gone there on the day in question.

His Worship ruled there was no evidence otherwise, and dismissed the summons.

LOCAL ESTATES

Jose Maria de Souza Espirito Santo, advocate and civil servant, late of No. 17 Rua da Sa, Macao, who died intestate on March 3, 1934, left local estate sworn under $1,200. Letters of administration for the use and benefit of Sebastiao Carlos de Jesus and Alfredo Augusto d'Almeida have been granted to Januario de Almeida, civil servant, of No. 43 Ashley Road, Kowloon.

Local estate to the value of $400 was left by Melania Joanna Botelho, widow, late of No. 35 Granville Road, Kowloon, who died intestate on February 23, 1937. Letters of administration have been granted to Carmelina Botelho Barreto, of No. 6 York Road Kowloon.

foreign journalists to plead China's cause to the world far more effectively than a hundred Chinese missions could have done, because the journalists told their stories in the shape of red hot news—news which shocked the world, it is feared, far too badly to expect an immediate recovery whatever panacea the Japanese may now apply.

In such circumstances, the dispatch of Japanese goodwill missions to the 'outside world' is a needless waste of money. They can do no good—the harm already done has been stamped too deeply in the hearts of millions of people who hate war and love liberty, fair play and civilised conduct in general too deeply to be fooled by bluff.

What is happening in England and America? Viscount Ishii's attempt to pull wool over the eyes of the British public received a reply in the shape of the greatest 'Boycott Japan' meeting ever held in the long history of London. In the United States the Japanese propagandists are hardly able to get an audience—open hostility is manifest.

If that has been the effect of the Japanese under-estimation of the human factor insofar as foreigners are concerned, the effect has been infinitely greater in the case of the Chinese. There the brutalities, rapings, mass murders and other inhumanities have imbued in the masses such an unquenchable hatred of Japan and all things Japanese that the nation has been welded together in an unbreakable unity whose inexorable purpose is to win the war and drive the invader out.

The most amazing and inexplicable anomaly of Japan's conduct is that while she herself boasts and is so proud of such virtues as patriotism, self-respect and honesty, she makes no allowance in any shape or form for the possession of like virtues by the Chinese, quite overlooking the fact that the Japanese and Chinese are of the same stock and that it was from the Chinese that the Japanese acquired in large measure their culture, their literature and their art.

The whole of Japan's campaign in China was apparently based on the presumption, or assumption, that the Chinese people were thoroughly and completely devoid of all virtues and were, in fact, a lot of spineless, weak-kneed creatures—so different to the Japanese. The war has disillusioned the Japanese, just as it has opened the eyes of the world to many virtues which nobody had previously connected with the Chinese character.

MALAYAN REVIEW

Malayan Matters

Of the several items that came before the last meeting of the Perak State Council, the most interesting was the proposal by the Hon. Col. Cecil Rae that Government should make provision for a major public work which was necessary but not urgent in order to provide employment for unskilled labour which became surplus during periods of depression, says the Malaya Tribune. The suggestion comes at an opportune moment because, whatever the conditions may be in the Colony, the conditions prevailing in the F.M.S. leave a good deal to be desired. The Hon. Mr. G. E. Cator, in reply to Col. Rae, said that the unemployment problem had not yet assumed serious proportions—the admission that there is an unemployment problem is made, be it noted—but in view of the fact that there had been cuts in the rubber and tin quotas, Government was undertaking an intensive examination of the position to see what steps could be taken in the way of making State provision for the contingency.

Satisfaction

There can be nothing but satisfaction with that statement. It indicates that the Government recognises that it has a certain amount of responsibility in this awkward economic problem and, if it embarks on public works in order to absorb surplus unskilled labour, nothing but good can result. The greatest benefit to be obtained from that course is that it will keep labour in the country and thus avoid the wasteful repatriation so freely resorted to during the last depression. One of the chief merits of the scheme outlined by Col. Rae is that it can be put into force with the minimum of delay. Whenever labour becomes surplus on mines and estates, that is, to an extent that warrants action, it can usefully be absorbed by employing it on public works which can be suspended when the demand for labour in the mining and rubber industries resumes normal proportions. The result of the official deliberations—announced by the Hon. Mr. Cator—on the subject will be awaited with interest.

"SHINTOISM"

Interesting Talk By Mr. D.O. de Silva

Mr. D. O. de Silva, F.R.G.S., gave an interesting lecture to the public for the local Theosophical Society on "Shintoism". "Shintoism," the speaker emphasised, was really a system of national ceremonial and adoration to proper conduct. But it could be called a religion as it contained teaching regarding the Deity or rather deities and a certain amount of worship was conducted along these lines.

What distinguished "Shintoism" from an animism was teaching regarding trinity. There was Izanagi and Izanami, the eternal male and the eternal female, and their off-spring. Physical objects typifying these were the sun, the earth and the stars.

"Shintoism" was essentially a national religion but new developments were giving it a more universal character.

Messrs. Wallace, Harper and Company Ltd., held a "preview" of the new 1938 Ford V-8 cars at their new Service Station in Arsenal Street last night when a number of people attended.

The new models are very streamlined and the feature that immediately catches the eye is the new radiator. Very well built with comfort and smartness the salient points, these cars are very favourably priced and anybody intending to buy a new car will be well advised to visit the "Ford Show" to-day and tomorrow before making a final decision.

YELLOW RIVER CROSSING IS FAILURE

JAPANESE ATTEMPT FRUSTRATED

LULL IN OPERATIONS

Hankow, March 11.
An official communique issued here today reports that the Chinese frustrated the Japanese attempt to cross the Yellow River.
After intensive artillery preparation the Japanese launched an attack on the Chinese positions on the southern bank of the Yellow River under cover of artificial fog but they were repulsed by the Chinese.
The Japanese plan provided that troops should cross the river simultaneously in the vicinity of Yumenkao on the frontier between the Provinces of Shansi and Shensi and at Fenlingtu, Mutsinta, Henghsien and Wenhsien.

On the Peiping-Hankow Railway and the Tientsin-Pukow Railway fronts there was a relative lull in operations yesterday and in the forenoon to-day.
There were only minor skirmishes between Japanese troops and irregulars in the vicinity of King-yuan and in the region of Lanchih in the south-eastern part of the province of Shantung. (Trans-ocean).

NANKOW CAPTURE CLAIMED

Shanghai, March 11.
Japanese sources claim today that the Japanese force, which yesterday crossed the Yellow River near Hoku into Shensi, has captured Nankow, key position on the western bank of the river, after heavy artillery bombardment.
The same sources also claim that the Chinese troops have retreated to the south-west, in the direction of Shennu along the Great Wall. (Reuter).

CHINESE PREPARING COUNTER-OFFENSIVE

Hsuehchow, March 11.
The Chinese forces in eastern Shantung are preparing for a counter-offensive against the Japanese troops there.
Japanese casualties during the recent fighting around Lin-i in eastern Shantung totalled 3,000, a Japanese captive revealed.
The Itagaki unit, he said, suffered heavily, whilst the "irregulars" under Liu Kwei-tang were almost entirely annihilated by the Chinese. (Central News).

NEXT U.S. PRESIDENT

Tourist Gives Tip

"I think the next President of the United States is going to be elected on a Cyclopedia Economy Campaign platform," declared Mr. Dabney H. Crump, president of the Anderson Clayton Cotton Co., largest cotton brokers in the world, in an interview yesterday.
Mr. Crump is travelling round the world with Mrs. Crump on the Empress of Britain.

Mr. Crump could not be induced to talk about the cotton industry, stating that any such statement must come from his head office for executives were not supposed to have any opinions.
Speaking about conditions generally, Mr. Crump said that men in the industrial sections were complaining of bad business while those connected with agriculture complained of low prices. His personal view, however, was that agriculture was not so bad at all.

RELIEF FROM TAXATION

Continuing, Mr. Crump said that the industrialists of America were shortly to get some relief from taxation and he felt that all except the very large concerns would get relief from the Excess Profits Tax, the idea being that the large businesses should be able to look after themselves and only the small concerns needed looking after.

JAPANESE UNITS DAMAGED

Hankow, March 11.
It was disclosed here today that a squadron of Chinese bombers inflicted heavy damage and casualties to Japanese motorized units in the south section of the Tatung-Puchow Railway.

While many Japanese troops were killed by the raids, others met their death in the stampede of tanks and armoured cars. The raid was made at noon and ended by 3 p.m. All the Chinese planes safely returned to their base. (International).

MORE RECRUITS THAN ARMY REQUIRES

War Minister Announces Important Changes ENLISTMENT EXPERIMENT

London, March 10.
More men are trying to join the British Army than is required. This was revealed by Mr. Leslie Hore Belisha, War Minister, when introducing the Army Estimates to the House of Commons today. He added that they were applying at the rate of nearly 60,000 a year.

At the present time over 500,000 soldiers had been raised in Britain under the voluntary system, and they can be mobilised for action in the various fields of Britain's Imperial responsibility. This figure excludes the 150,000 soldiers maintained in the Dominion, the Indian Army which, with reserve, is 170,000 strong, and the many thousands in the local forces of the Colonies and Protectorates.

"We suffer no difficulties in man-ter suited to meet the commitments," continued Mr. Hore Belisha, "but its correct organisation and distribution."

Discussing the considerations which impinge on the distribution of the Army, Mr. Belisha pointed out that the number of units to be stationed in India is predetermined, and as an essential feature of the distribution was that units at Home were interchangeable with units in India the pace of the adaptation of the rest of the British Army was influenced by the speed in which the Government of India found itself able to proceed.

Continuing, Mr. Hore Belisha said the duty of defending England against an air attack was entrusted to the Territorials with a total establishment manning 76 batteries and 108 searchlight companies.

Twenty-eight British battalions were now stationed overseas, excluding India and Burma.

REVISION OF DIVISIONS

Lord Haldane's strategic reserve of fixed division required revision in the light of developments, especially in the strengthening of defence methods.

There should be two types of division, the first of which was motorised, based on the light machine gun, and the second a mechanised armoured division, based on the tank.

Battalions of the former Division should each possess 50 Bren guns.

The object underlying the changes was for an inflexible organisation of the regular forces at Home being capable of producing a greater number of divisions beter suited to meet the commitments.

SIMPLER DRILL

Mr. Hore Belisha asked why, unlike the Navy and the Air Force, should heads alone be counted in the Army, and fire-power and mobility discounted. He proposed measures to alter this.
He mentioned the progressive elimination from soldiers' drill of all superfluous postures and superfluous gadgets requiring polish, and that new clothing be adapted for the soldiers' increasingly mechanised function.

A warrant officer, today surely was capable of commanding a platoon. Therefore, he proposed to enlarge the complement of warrant officers by the creation of a new class of this soldier, and also to effect a reduction in subalterns, which in turn, would enable officers to rise more rapidly.

GREATER BENEFITS

The Government proposed to experiment with direct enlistment for certain prospects (subject to suitability) of being re-engaged for a pension.

Other financial benefits include four cumulative increments of three-pence per day at the end of the first, second, eighth and thirteenth years, in addition to a special 3d. increase for proficiency pay.

There would be an increase in family allowance for married men over 26 to 17s., and additional allowances for children. The new rates would take effect on April 30. (Reuter).

The London, Midland and Scottish Railway's "Coronation Express" will be sent to the World Exhibition in the United States next year, declared Sir Josiah Stamp, chairman of the railway company, today.

After the United States visit, the train will be sent to Canada for an exhibition run across the Dominion. (Reuter).

Farr Favoured Against Max Baer

Max Baer

New York, March 11.
Odds on Tommy Farr beating Max Baer at the Madison Square Garden tonight are now seven to five. The winner will be hailed as the logical opponent for the winner of the Louis-Schmeling fight.
Farr told Reuter: "I will win as quickly as possible. It is certain you'll see a new Tommy Farr, punching harder than ever."

Farr knocked out all eight sparring partners and is willing to bet $5,000 that he will win.

The public is showing little interest in Baer, who is in tip-top condition and has not smoked for five weeks, which is a record. (Reuter).

FATHER OF THE KUOMINTANG AFFAIRS TO BE DISCUSSED

After graduating, Dr. Sun established himself in practice at Macao, where he began to preach his revolutionary doctrines.

"HING CHUNG WHUI"

In the Spring of 1895, Dr. Sun Yat-sen joined hands with Messrs. Tse Tsan-tai (a well-known resident at present in the Colony), Kuf-wa and others, and established the "Hing Chung Whui" Revolutionary Party with Headquarters at No. 13, Staunton Street, Hong Kong.

A premature attempt at revolution and capture of Canton City by Dr. Sun Yat-sen, Messrs. Tse, Yung and others was made on October 26, 1895.

Dr. Sun then fled for his life to Japan, Honolulu the United States and England.

While in England Dr. Sun underwent the thrilling experience of being kidnapped in London by the servants of the Chinese (Manchu) Legation and held prisoner, pending arrangements by the Legation officials to "ship and smuggle" him to China.

It was fortunate for Dr. Sun Yat-sen managed to get into communication with Dr. (later Sir) James Cantile, his former tutor in Hong Kong, who succeeded in persuading the British Government to obtain his release.

IMPORTANCE OF INFANTRY

The importance of the infantry soldier was emphasized by Major-General Sir John Brown, Deputy Director-General of the Territorial Army, in a speech at Connaught Quay, Flint, recently, states The Times.

The tendency today, he said, was to give prominence to the anti-aircraft defence of great cities, or the defence of naval harbours. It was a great thing that such responsibilities should have been laid with confidence on the shoulders of the Territorial Army. But never was there less cause to forget the infantryman.

Mr. Yang Hsiao-lou, a well known exponent of the Peking drama, recently passed away in Peiping at the age of 61 years. The late Mr. Yang had been living in retirement during the past few years.

Great importance is being attached by Chinese political circles to the meeting as resolutions of a far reaching nature are expected to be adopted.

Not only domestic and foreign policies of the Government during the present emergency period will be studied, but measures for closer co-operation of various parties other than Kuomintang will be decided.

Owing to the absence of important Kuomintang officials, no details of the forthcoming congress were available yet. It was generally considered to be certain that the congress will usher in a new era, giving official recognition of a united front of various parties in China.

COMMUNIST STATUS

The status of the Communists in China, who have voluntarily abolished their own Government in wholehearted support of the Kuomintang regime, is expected to be defined, thereby promoting a more smooth and unreserved co-operation.

This will be the first occasion since the founding of the Kuomintang Government in Nanking that the topic of uniting different parties in resistance against foreign aggression will come up for discussion. During former meetings, the dominance of the Kuomintang in China was unquestioned.

QUIET VICTORY MARCH

Shanghai, March 11.
Japan's second victory march in the International Settlement was held yesterday in commemoration of Japan's victory over Russia at Mukden 24 years ago. It passed off without incident.

The march was held in the Japanese sector of the International Settlement, which was cordoned off.

Only Japanese nationals were allowed inside. (Reuter).

Service Of Foreign Loans Arranged

London, March 10.
Reuter understands that agreement has virtually been reached in the Anglo-Japanese negotiations whereby the Japanese Government will disburse from the Chinese Customs sufficient funds for the service of foreign loans secured on the Customs.

It is understood that there will be no interference with the present Customs Administration at Shanghai. (Reuter).

Leon Blum To Form Cabinet

CHAUTEUMPS HANDS IN RESIGNATION

Paris, March 11.
M. Leon Blum, leader of the Social Democratic Front, was yesterday asked to form a new government by President Lebrun.

Before that, the President had consultations with M. Jeanneney, president of the Senate, and M. Herriot, president of the Chamber. M. Lebrun also had a long talk with M. Chauteumps when the latter called to hand in his written resignation.

M. Chauteumps indicated to the press last night that he would under no circumstances undertake the formation of a new Cabinet. (Transocean).

Ladies' Golf

Second Time Champion

MRS. WHYTE SMITH WINS FINAL

Mrs. Whyte Smith won the Ladies' Golf Championship for 1938 beating Mrs. McGowan one up.

The final was fought out on the Old Course at Fanling on Thursday morning under most trying conditions, rain falling heavily during the first four holes. On the whole the match was conspicuous for the good driving and long approach shots to the green.

SQUARE AT THE TURN

Mrs. Whyte Smith, playing steadily, was two up at the fifth, when Mrs. McGowan with three good holes in succession became square at the turn.

The play was even during the second half, the players being level on the 18th tee. The 18th hole proved disastrous for Mrs. McGowan as her approach shot was trapped in the bunker guarding the green and she failed to get out at the first attempt.

The match was umpired by Mrs. Forbes.

Mrs. Whyte Smith thus becomes Champion for the second time, having won the title in 1929.

ARMY AREA COMMITTEE TO MEET ON MONDAY

Present System Of Scoring Should Be Changed

The annual general meeting of the Army Area Lawn Tennis Committee is to be held on Monday next, when it is hoped to have a representative present from each Unit, and that the opportunity will be taken to bring about some badly needed reforms.

The greatest need at the moment is the abolition of the present system of scoring in the League Matches. One point for each match won is far from satisfactory and leads to some anomalous positions in the League when the final positions are decided at the end of the season.

In most other Army Commands, both at home and abroad a point is awarded for each set won. This not only ensures that interest will be maintained in each match right to the end of the final set, but at the end of the season the final placings in the League Tables give a much more accurate picture of the merits of each team.

For example, in a League with nine teams, the final positions, under the present scoring system, would be as follows, in accordance with the number of matches won or lost:—

Team	P.	W.	L.	F.	A.
A.	8	8	0	8	0
B.	8	7	1	7	1
C.	8	6	2	6	2
D.	8	5	3	5	3
E.	8	4	4	4	4
F.	8	3	5	3	5
G.	8	2	6	2	6
H.	8	1	7	1	7
J.	8	0	8	0	8

SETS AND MATCHES WON

It will be observed that in the above Table the team that has won all of its matches wins the League, while the team that has won only five of its eight matches is placed fourth. But "A", although winning all of its matches has had to struggle to do so, and has won only 44 of the 72 sets played.

"D", on the other hand, won five of its matches handsomely and only just lost the other three, resulting in the team capturing 47 sets out of 72.

Obviously "D" is the team that should be at the head of the Table, and, with the "point per set" method of scoring it would be at the top, while the team with only 44 sets to its credit would drop to third or even fourth place, despite the fact that it had won all of its matches.

TWO DIVISIONS

Another direction in which a change is desirable concerns the actual composition of the League, and the local authorities would again be advised to follow the lead of the Aldershot Command and es-

BETTER VALUE THAN EVER

The Gillette No. 77 Set illustrated here, which contains the latest Gillette razor, three Blue Gillette slotted blades and two blade holders in a new type of moulded box, has these definite advantages.

The razor is made in two pieces instead of three, as formerly, thus making it easier and quicker to clean, assemble and use.

The blades are made by the new electrical-tampering process. They give not only closer, cleaner shaves than you have ever had before, but also more shaves per blade.

The case is ideal for hot and humid climates as it is so easy to keep clean.

Ask your dealer to show you a No. 77 Set—one of the most popular that Gillette have ever made.

ARMY TENNIS

tabish a Senior League for the stronger teams and a Junior League for the weaker ones.

Thus would ensure satisfaction all round and would make the competition more even. It would also stimulate interest in the game and save many teams from going on to the courts knowing full well that they were going to get it "in the neck" from a vastly superior team.

Such an innovation would, naturally, cost a little more in cash expenditure but it would be money well spent.

CHARGE OF SEASON

There is one thing that all the meetings in Hong Kong will not be able to rectify, and that is the weather—match after match was "rained off" last year, and no doubt will be again this year. But if the weather cannot be altered the period of the competition can be. It seems too much to hope that the season will be altered to a period already full with Football, Hockey, Rugby and Cricket, but it seems a great pity to have the courts idle during the ideal tennis weather that is usually experienced between October and January.

INTERNATIONAL HOCKEY

The following teams will take part in the First round of the United Clubs International Tournament, at the Police Training School on Thursday next, bully off 5 p.m.

India (Red shirts):—Hav Behari Singh (RR); Rfn. Gussain Singh and Hav Tilok Singh (Kumaons); Tara Singh (HKERA); Gulam Rasool (RR); Malik (KITC); Teja Singh (HKP); Pritam Nath (RR); Fyara Singh (KITC); Gurbachan Singh (Radio); Partab (Kumaons).
Reserves: Naraina Ram (RR) Hav Khuda Bux (HKERA) and Botsa Singh (HKP).

England (White shirts):—Dobson (RE); Stickley (Mddix); Robbison (RAF); Whetton (RE); Brown (HKP); Guest (Radio); S. Fowler (CBA); Howlett (HKP); G. Fowler (CBA); Dunne (Mddix); Bond (CBA). Reserves: Gorman (Mddix); Parker (HKP); Smith (CBA).

BADMINTON

Colony Championship Matches

Three matches in the Colony Badminton championships were decided at the Club de Recreio yesterday evening.

C. Au, acknowledged to be one of the strongest challengers to Patrick Wong, the holder, advanced into the semi-final of the Singles Championship as the result of his win over T. F. Yong. He will now meet P. K. Hui, last year's runner-up, at Talkoo Club on Monday.

The doubles encounter between H. A. Alves and H. A. Barros and M. A. Oliveira and J. J. Remedios, both from the Club de Recreio, ended in straight sets victory for the latter pair.

In the third match of the evening, the Mixed Doubles fixture between P. K. Hui and Miss U. Khoo and Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Clark, the holders ran away with the first set but Mr. and Mrs. Clark improved in the second set and fully extended them for every point.

The full scores were:—
Men's Singles:—C. Au beat T. F. Yong 15-9, 15-11.

Men's Doubles:—M. A. Oliveira and J. J. Remedios beat H. A. Alves and H. A. Barros 15-5, 15-7.
Mixed Doubles:—P. K. Hui and Miss U. Khoo beat Mr. and Mrs. S. W. Clark 15-0, 17-14.

The last of the famous Adelphi arches doomed by the new development scheme—those which used to support the roadway of Adam-street—are rapidly crumbling into red rubble under the assault of the demolishers.
From a plank gangway spanning the site a remarkable object-lesson in constructional progress since the brothers Adam built the arches in 1770 is apparent.
Side by side with the double tier of half-demolished arches, graceful and rhythmic for all the ponderous mass of their brickwork, are the sparse girders of steel, looking like matchsticks in comparison, but designed for the same load.
A concrete roadway is to be built on the new supports, as has already been done in the adjacent John-street.
Rapid progress is being made on the new 2500,000 Adelphi building. The steel framework was finished some time ago, brick and stonework are creeping upwards, and the impressive colonnade of pillars to support the new terrace overlooking the river is in position. There are 440 workmen employed on the site.
The architects, Colcutt and Hamp, state that the building may be ready to receive the first tenants by about September.

30 YEARS IN THE FAR EAST

Mr. J. E. Hargreaves Going On Leave

A typical "Old China Hand" Mr. J. E. Hargreaves, manager in China for Messrs. Babcock & Wilcox, is shortly returning to England on long leave, and will then be retiring from Messrs. Babcock & Wilcox of China, states the North China Daily News.
Mr. Hargreaves has been in the Far East for 32 years, having arrived here from England during 1906. He joined Babcock & Wilcox, Japan, Ltd., on March 1, 1906. He was later transferred to the Russian branch, during the Great War, being made a director of that concern.
Mr. Hargreaves came to China as manager at the end of 1917. After the great earthquake in Japan, Mr. Hargreaves re-organized the Japanese interests of the company, and as manager for the Far East, including China, Japan and the Straits Settlements, was a director of the Japan works.
Later, the Babcock interests in Japan were joined up with Japanese interests, and subsequently Mr. Hargreaves retired from the Japanese concern.
